FINGER LAKES WEST REGIONAL TRAINING CONFERENCE

Friday, January 25, 2013

Ontario County Safety Training Facility
2914 County Road #48, Canandaigua, N.Y. 14424
8:30am-4:00pm – Registration begins at 8:00 am

Gangs 101 –This presentation will provide a broad introduction regarding gang structures, the foundational factors of gang initiation, membership, colors and tattooing.

Hospital Based Violence Intervention –This presentation is an aggressive, hospital based, violence intervention program aimed at youths under 18 who have been victimized by violent crime. This program successfully incorporates a wide range of hospital, law enforcement and community resources in an effort to identify and address individualized risk factors and behaviors known to escalate the cycle of violence.

Major Case Investigations in Corrections-This presentation will provide attendees with the basic knowledge of applying Correctional Intelligence to Law Enforcement investigations.

Current Gang Trends –This presentation will discuss dynamics and the current trends occurring in the Western Region of New York State.

This conference will assist participants to recognize and enhance their understanding of gangs and the potential issues that they bring to schools and communities. NYGIA provides a venue for collaboration and communication across disciplines. Target audience: community-based organizations, law enforcement/corrections, schools, medical and mental health professionals, civic groups, youth agencies, and faith-based organizations.
